Charles Street: Objectors lose fight to stop extra £2m spend

AN ADDITIONAL £2million of public money is being ploughed into the redevelopment of Dorchester's Charles Street area.

Despite continued objections, West Dorset councillors voted to press ahead with the scheme which will see changes to the development in an attempt to make it viable.

Some of the additional money will be used to relocate the Dorchester Community Church from Acland Road to the Trinity Street car park.

Other changes include replacing a planned hotel with 24 open market flats and reducing the amount of underground parking at the site, provided that an equivalent number of spaces are created elsewhere in the town, possibly at the Fairfield.

Council chief executive David Clarke said after last week's stormy council meeting that the decision was good news for Dorchester.

by Trevor Bevins
trevorbevins@gmail.com

"The project will bring huge improvements for the county town, new retail opportunities and about 600 jobs which could be filled by local people.

"Although parking at the site would be reduced to 305 spaces under these proposals, Simons are looking at how to create 179 spaces elsewhere, possibly by creating a new deck on Fairfield car park."

Opponents have continued to question the claims, the maths and the logic of the decision and say all the decision has done is add to the potential council tax bills of every person in West Dorset – with no guarantee of success for the £60m commercial scheme.

The development so far is claimed to have already lost the town half a million one-hour parking spaces.

Objector Chris Holmes said it was wrong that the extra £2million was coming out of the pockets of local council tax payers, rather than from developers, Simons.

"Most of this money is to shift a private church off one central car-park onto another central car-park. This is without any public consultation. And this is without any guarantee that Phase 2 of the development will follow."

He is also upset that town centre car-parking spaces may be reduced from 506 to 340.

"Viability Assessment reports are produced regularly by Simons and handed to WDDC officers. Every one of the last six reports, which cover the past three years, has concluded that Phase 2 is not viable.

"And, even worse, that the prospect of viability has been steadily – and is still – deteriorating...

"The next elections can't come soon enough."

Independent Dorchester councillor Alistair Chisholm said he worried that the decision was handing a blank cheque to the developers, with no guarantee that they would not come back and ask for more: "This huge sum of West Dorset District Council taxpayers' money will still not guarantee that a single brick is built."

Broken jaw in bar attack

A MAN suffered a broken nose and jaw as a result of an early hours assault in Dorchester's Apple Tree Bar in Trinity Street on Sunday.

The incident happened at approximately 1.30am on Sunday, October 28th.

A 40-year-old man from Dorchester was allegedly assaulted in an unprovoked attack at the bar area.

A 36-year-old Dorchester man has been arrested and is assisting officers with their investigation.

Detective Constable Andy Marsh, of Weymouth CID, said: "The victim suffered serious facial injuries as a result of this incident, and I would encourage anyone with any information to contact Dorset Police."

Anyone with information is asked to call Dorset Police in confidence on 101 quoting incident number 28:113. Alternatively, call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111.

JEWELLERY-maker Lindsay Anderson moved from Hertfordshire to Dorset in 2003, spending the last seven years in Dorchester.

Her experience in the craft world led to her founding Shop Dorset – a shopping website dedicated to promoting local businesses.

The 43-year-old lives with her partner, Neil, six-year-old daughter Daisy and Lottie, the rescue lurcher.

● WHAT is Shop Dorset?

Shop Dorset is a new, networked shopping website featuring a great mix of independent local retailers, food producers, artists and craftspeople. It shows off what a fantastic variety of small enterprises exist in our beautiful county, drawing on a fashionable desire for shopping locally. We now have nearly 100 local enterprises on board and are still growing weekly with space for many more to join.

● WHAT inspired you to set it up?

I have run the Dorset Art and Craft Show for over six years now, as a series of quality events in different venues around the county. I found many of our exhibitors were unsure how best to harness the marketing opportunities the web now offers in terms of developing their businesses and retailing to a wider audience. Having always worked in marketing, I felt I could bring my experience to build something which could really help a wide mix of Dorset businesses pull together to jointly promote their fantastic wares.

● DOES it help customers or businesses?

Both! We are obviously trying to connect shoppers with businesses who offer what they are looking for, and businesses with potential customers for their products. If your Christmas list seems like a daunting challenge this year, just click onto www.shopdorset.co.uk and you will find a whole host of original ideas for all, including those hard-to-please family members and friends, all available from the comfort of your own home.

● HAVE you ever turned away a business?

No, not yet luckily. I think the ethos of the site is quite clear, so retailers understand that we are only aiming to attract those businesses who offer quality, appealing products with great customer service.

● HOW did you start making jewellery?

I have been making bead jewellery since I was a child and I have lost none of the simple pleasure that creating your own designs brings since those early attempts. I now specialise in sterling silver designs with gem-stones, freshwater pearls and beautiful beads and sell my work through Walford Craft Mill and Shop Dorset.

● WHAT are the influences on your designs?

The endless combinations of colours, shapes and textures inspires new pieces – necklaces, bracelets and earrings from easy-to-wear items to special occasion designs created for that wow factor.

● HOW do you manage to juggle work and family life?

A very supportive partner who is man enough to use an iron or oven without it threatening his masculinity. I know I'm lucky to often pick my daughter up from school although it regularly means working late into the evening to repay the privilege but I would be bored if I wasn't so busy and relish new challenges as a way to keep life interesting.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

● IS the internet killing the high street?

I think people will always enjoy visiting the high street and the more sociable experience it offers. But with busy lives, the internet can offer an alternative shopping experience when we haven't the time to pound the pavement for what we are looking for. With Shop Dorset you don't lose the personal touch as you are dealing direct with each of our retailers, many of whom are one-man or woman bands.

● WHAT does your daughter make of your jewellery?

She says she wears it and she really likes how pretty it all is. She is very sweet and kind to her mummy! It's lovely to see how all small children are so easily absorbed by crafts, the creative instinct is something we should nurture throughout life.

● WHO would you most like to see wearing your jewellery?

Kate Middleton for the obvious exposure and Aung San Suu Kyi for the credibility.

● WHAT is your favourite shop in the world?

My local deli, The Potting Shed (Olives Et Al) in Poundbury whose chilled and friendly café is a favourite after-school haunt with my daughter. Now they have launched in America, which is a fantastic inspiration for all Dorset enterprises. I also love Kaniki, the Uttam shop in Bath, whose great online presence also reflects the quirky fashion sense of the store.

● WHO would play you in the biopic movie of your life?

I would hope for Cameron Diaz but fear that friends would cast Barbara Windsor instead – something to do with my distinctive laugh!

Click onto www.shopdorset.co.uk for great Christmas gifts and enter the site's Christmas Free Prize Draw which offers a Lush gift box worth £100 amongst its great prizes (see site for T&Cs).

The Dorset Art & Craft Show is at the Corn Exchange in Dorchester on Saturday, December 8th, 10am to 4pm with over 50 local artists and craftspeople exhibiting.

Mixed feelings at the opening of Dorchester's new cinema

DORCHESTER'S latest cinema, The Odeon, was officially opened last week at a charity screening for the Wessex Autistic Society of the James Bond adventure Skyfall, by Downton Abbey creator Lord Julian Fellowes.

The £3m Odeon building, with three screens and more than 400 seats, is the first major building to open in the Brewery Square scheme.

Developer Andrew Wadworth was there on the evening with his daughter and declared it "a great day for Dorchester."

Not everyone shared his feelings, however, as the Odeon has opened to a Facebook campaign calling for local people to boycott it.

More than 1,000 people have said they support the online campaign which also calls for continued support for the town's Plaza cinema in Trinity Street.

In his speech Lord Fellowes pointedly remarked how thrilling it was to now have two cinemas in Dorchester and added that he wished both success.

Neither cinema was prepared to comment on the Facebook campaign.

But creators of the Facebook page are concerned that the Odeon may threaten the long-term future of The Plaza.

However judging by bookings for the Plaza this

by Trevor Bevens
trevorbevins@gmail.com

week they have little to worry about – attempts to find a seat at any of the Skyfall evening sessions at the Plaza for the whole of this week showed every screening to be completely, or nearly at capacity, with just an occasional single seat left.

Their usual ticket cost of £2.50 for a 2D film in the week and only £3.50 at weekends, will undoubtedly help and anecdotal evidence suggests that many people take advantage of free Dorchester town centre parking to come to the county town to watch a film at the Plaza, rather than pay higher ticket prices at Cineworld.

The Plaza also has a considerable cost advantage over the Odeon with Skyfall adult evening tickets this week selling at the Odeon for £7. Spaces were available at every showing on Monday.

Comments on the Facebook site included this: "There is an argument that says if the Plaza is great why should they worry, but the reality is that Odeon is a huge multi million pound corporation, they can afford to operate at a loss for years, and not claw back returns until later on."

"The Plaza is a locally run family business, supported by the Picture House group, but really embodies local, independent cinema. They provide an amazing experience, with staff passionate about film, at an amazing price... "I truly hope the Plaza is successful, and I wish no ill will on the staff at the Odeon Dorchester, however I shall not be attending. Good luck Plaza."

But others welcomed the jobs and choice that the Odeon brings: "I will not boycott the Odeon - I support anything that brings life in to Dorchester - and jobs," said one post.

Praise for poppy collectors but more are needed

EXTRA collectors are needed to ensure Dorchester remains one of the best towns in the country for poppy appeal collections.

At the launch of this year's appeal several long-serving collectors were praised for their dedication to the annual appeal.

Amongst them was 80-year-old Ann Bendall who has put in 40 years of service to the cause.

Appeal organiser Graham Rhys-Jones said it was collectors like Mrs Bendall who helped Dorchester "punch above its weight", last year collecting a record £26,600 for the appeal.

"The total is high because of the generosity of the people of the town and the determination of people who turn out, year after year, whatever the weather to collect money," he said during the launch of this year's appeal at the town's Military Museum.

Praise for the collectors also came from Mayor Andy Canning who thanked the volunteers for keeping the memory alive of those who fought in two world wars and other conflicts as well.

But many of the collectors are now unable to commit as many hours as they would like and the appeal is in need of more volunteer collectors to work either door to door, or collecting at fixed points.

In one area of the town alone, Manor Park, the appeal is five collectors short and next year will be eight short. "We will manage but it makes it easier if there are more people to help out," said organiser for the area Margaret Stephenson who can be telephoned on 01305 267724.

To offer help in other areas of Dorchester please call Dorchester organiser Mr Rhys-Jones on 01305 265807.

In addition to Mrs Bendall, who collects around the area of Whetstones in the Walks, service awards went to Miss Karyn Palmer who has collected for 20 years and Roy Fry who has collected at the County Hospital and elsewhere for 15 years.

Others presented certificates or bars for their collection work were Reg Hawker, Maurice Walker, Anthony Gannon, Keith Simmonds and there was a special award to Colin Parr and the Keep Military Museum for its ongoing support of the appeal.

Indian campaign solidiers remembered

DORSET soldiers who lost their lives in an Indian campaign more than a century ago have been remembered at a service in Dorchester's Borough Gardens.

Twenty-three members of the Dorsetshire Regiment who died in combat on the North West Frontier were remembered by members of the Royal British Legion, the Royal Naval Association, and Devonshire and Dorset Regiment Association at the Tirah Memorial.

The memorial commemorates those who lost their lives in 1897/8 following serious unrest on the North West frontier involving a series of attacks on forts. A large Field Force of 36,000 British and Indian troops was sent to the region to restore order. The 1st Devons and 1st Dorsets were part of this Field Force, amongst them Private Sam Vickery who was awarded the Victoria Cross for gallantry, the only one won by the Regiment.

The memorial obelisk was paid for by public subscription and was unveiled in 1900 by the Earl of Ilchester.

The service was conducted by the Reverend Canon Harold Stevens, and The Mayor of Dorchester, Andy Canning read the lesson.

"I was delighted with the attendance of 80 people at the moving act of commemoration for the 23 soldiers of the Dorsetshire Regiment who lost their lives on the North-West frontier of India in 1897-98 near the Kyber Pass...

The event was made all the more poignant by the news in the evening of the deaths of two more members of our armed forces in that region. It is important to remember with pride," said Major Nick Speakman from the Keep Military Museum, who organised the event.

Museum Curator Captain Colin Parr added: "Remembrance and commemoration are two variations of a theme that I believe we all should consider taking part in at least once a year.

"Remembrance is a sobering occasion but it is an occasion where everyone can take a small amount of time to remember all those who lost their lives during war and conflict so that we can enjoy the way we live today in a free society. I remember the Kohima tribute which ends 'For your tomorrow, we gave our today'! Let us forget!"

Dorchester students facing hurricane in the USA

Thomas Hardy School sixth formers on a trip to America have hunkered down in Boston in the face of Hurricane Sandy.

The group have had their trip to New York postponed and are now anxiously waiting to see if their return flights to the UK are affected.

On Monday the group had to get back to their hotel before public transport shut down at 2.00pm.

A planned visit to the Fine Arts Museum was cancelled as the building was closed. "We have stocked up with snacks and porridge. Fortunately the hotel restaurant and bar are open as usual," said one of the tutors in a message home.

Cold weather can't deter the cub scouts

BITTERLY cold winds failed to stop Cub Scouts from the Central Dorchester group hiking around Maiden Castle at the weekend.

The cubs, pictured, aged between 8 and 11, walked circuits around the rings, accompanied by adults, to raise funds for the Joseph Weld Hospice.

Sponsorship will mostly come from family and friends but donations are being invited from others who would like to support their efforts.

The pack currently has about 30 members after being merged with the Sawmills group last year.

Meetings are usually held on Monday evenings.

English Heritage gave the group special permission to erect a couple of tents close to the monument car park to provide the Cub Scouts, their leaders and supporters, with a base for the venture.

DOZENS of volunteers who give up their time to help others have been honoured at an awards evening in Dorchester.

The Dorchester-based Volunteer Centre Dorset celebrated individuals and groups from across the county who make life better for others.

They varied from volunteers who have been working in groups, or alone, for more than 30 years, to helpers who have given up a year of their time.

"The volunteer spirit is alive and well in Dorset...the contributions volunteers make is incalculable and life in the county would be poorer without them," said Lord Lieutenant Valerie Pitt-Rivers, who along with Dorchester Mayor, Andy Canning, presented the awards.

The county town was well represented at the ceremony with youth awards to Michael Taylor and Rory Major at Dorchester Youth Centre

by Trevor Bevins

Top Tips for your Lawn this Autumn

The next few months are very important if you want to create a beautiful lawn for next year. For your best-ever lawn, follow these five simple tips...

Mow it Properly

The best thing you can do for your lawn is to make sure you're cutting it correctly. Many problems are caused by not mowing it often enough, then cutting it far too short when you do. In autumn you'll need to mow less frequently than in summer as grass grows less quickly, but don't let it get too long. If the grass is a little long as spring approaches, mow in a couple of stages - try not to take more than a third off its length in any one cut. Ideally your lawn should be kept between 3cms and 4cms high.

Collect lawn cuttings - dead grass will starve your lawn of essential water and light, and encourage excessive thatch and a build-up of moss.

Make sure your lawn mower is up to the job too. Consider getting it serviced to ensure blades are sharp, the engine is running well and the power cable is free of any damage.

Clear up Leaves

Sweep up leaves regularly. If left on the lawn, they reduce the amount of light getting to the grass and if left for too long, will smother the grass over the winter. This leads to bare patches that are vulnerable to disease in spring. Removing leaves also helps prevent moss as leaves allow water to settle on the lawn.

Get on Top of the Moss

Moss is most prolific between autumn and spring, and some lawn conditions make it more likely to thrive. Lawns that are compacted due to regular usage and footfall (particularly common in soil with a high clay content) can't dissipate water from the surface - and moss loves these damp conditions. Gardens with a lot of thatch are also high risk. Made up of stems, roots and leaves, thatch forms a mat on the lawn's surface, preventing moisture, oxygen and nutrients reaching the roots. Moss also loves shady conditions. If your lawn is particularly shady, consider re-seeding with a shade-tolerant grass seed.

Consider Mechanical Treatments

For many lawns, mechanical treatments are the only way to prevent the build-up of moss. Hollow-Tine Aeration alleviates compaction and involves punching out thousands of cores from the lawn to allow air, water and nutrients to reach the roots. Next season, your grass will look thicker and healthier. Scarification uses a machine with blades and knives to reduce thatch. It's a much more rigorous and effective process than raking. Reduction of thatch will considerably improve moss levels.

Watch Out for Common Problems

Keep an eye out for unusual patches or discolouration of the lawn, which can indicate a fungal infection. If dealt with early, this is easily remedied but if ignored, can have devastating effects.

Mosaics on show : It's never too late to have a go at something different

A MOSAICS exhibition opens at Dorset County Museum this weekend with an accompanying lecture on November 8th.

"A World in Fragments" is the work of mosaic artist Robert Field and showcases a range of mosaics inspired by his travels around the world. Subjects include birds, flowers, landscapes and designs inspired by architecture, geology and Gothic and Art Deco images.

Before taking early retirement from teaching, Robert started travelling widely in the Roman world studying and photographing mosaics. This took him to Italy, North Africa and the Near East, Cyprus and Spain and later to Greece and Turkey to see Byzantine examples. Following this he began to study Victorian and modern mosaics which he has examined and photographed extensively in Britain as well as in Europe and America.

Also a successful author, Robert has written six books on geometric patterns which are used by many people as a source of creative design in subjects as diverse as embroidery, patio paving, knitwear and quilt making.

As part of the mosaics theme, Robert will be giving a lecture on Thursday, November 8th at 7 for 7.30pm. The lecture is entitled 'Mosaic Art: Past and Present' and entry is free.

The exhibition runs from November 3rd to January 26th and entry is free.

■ 'POOL REFLECTIONS' by Robert Field

COMMUNITY singing, circus skills and citizen journalism all featured at a day long learning event in Dorchester on Saturday.

Free taster sessions and workshops were on offer together with the chance to question local training providers and groups which offer a range of adult courses, both for fun and career development.

The event, in the Town Hall, was organised by Unionlearn, the education arm of the TUC, who joined forces with UNISON's Dorset County Council Branch to put on a day-long event as part of this year's nationwide Celebration of Learning.

"It was a celebration of learning with a really wide range of contributors showing just what there is on offer in the county...the idea was to promote the idea of adult learning," said organiser Keith Hatch from Unionlearn.

Amongst the organisations taking part were Dorset Adult Learning, the Workers Education Association, Dorset Wildlife Trust and Read Easy. Participants, which amounted to around a hundred during the day, could also try their hand at circus skills, digital photography and community singing.

Amanda Brown, Assistant Branch Secretary with Unison Dorset County Branch said: "This was a great event that brought along exciting learning opportunities, local providers and community groups together to demonstrate that it's never too late to have a go at something different and learn a new skill."

"Trade unions have always led the way supported learning in the workplace, but events like Celebration of Learning show that we also support learning in the wider community and want to bring the benefits of learning to everyone."

Do-it-yourself litter patrol

NEIGHBOURS rallied round to answer a plea to tackle litter in and around Hawthorne Close.

Tracy Privett prepared a leaflet and organised a litter pick after getting fed up with seeing increasing amounts of litter, including fly tipping in the area.

She was delighted when ten local residents turned up at 1030 on Sunday morning. Day-glo tabards, litter pickers, gloves and rubbish bags, provided by West Dorset and the local branch of The Campaign to Protect Rural England were quickly distributed and the litter attack was underway.

The team covered Hawthorne Road, Hawthorne Close, Mountain Ash Road, Prospect Road, St Thomas Road, and the alleyways in between. Within an hour and a half the group had completed their task finishing with a dozen bags of litter, a pile of rugs that had been dumped as well as a large fish tank!

Amongst those participating were: Tracy Privett, Clive, Ros and Alice Padgett, Sue White, Lucy Johns, Chris Cunningham, Sandra Pike, Adam and Rachel Fitzgerald, pictured (above) with the litter they collected.

Whatever happened to localism

■ WE MAY have had doubts before, but after Thursday's decision by West Dorset District Council to put a further £2million into Phase 2 of the Charles Street project, we now know for certain that the much vaunted policy of "localism" is nothing more than a figleaf to hide a carte blanche charter for developers.

The words of our MP, Oliver Letwin, published on his blog (<http://www.oliverletwinmp.com/archives/442>) are worth reading once again if only to enjoy the hollow ringing sound which accompanies them.

"The people primarily responsible for forming a vision of Dorchester in a plan for Dorchester ought, surely, to be the people of Dorchester... the power to determine what can and cannot be built in Dorchester should lie with Dorchester, just as the power to determine what happens in Sherborne should lie with Sherborne..."

In the face of local opposition, clearly expressed by the town council and reinforced by 93 per cent of voters in a subsequent town poll, WDDC bulldozed through their plans for new offices and will soon be moving into Titanic Towers on Charles Street.

Not content with riding roughshod over this clear expression of local views, they have now agreed to spend another £2million of our money (the equivalent of £110 from every West Dorset household) to help Simons the developer once again by paying for 'preparatory' works which we were promised would be paid for with private funds found by the developer.

Not only is the public purse being asked to fund parts of this scheme that we were promised would be funded by the private sector, but the scheme itself is being altered very significantly.

The hotel has gone (and with it many of the 600 new jobs promised), car parking on the site has been reduced by over 150 spaces (the serious concerns about this 'amendment' to the scheme expressed by a leading local business completely ignored) and there is to be no comprehensive archaeological investigation into what was termed by the planning inspector as a site 'of national importance'.

I believe these profound changes in themselves make the scheme much less viable but WDDC appear not to consider such trifles in their desperate attempt to save face. Requests to pause and reflect on all the options now open to them were rejected and a very hasty decision has been made which the town may live to regret over the next few decades.

Perhaps the most galling factor in the whole of this tragic affair is that these decisions affecting Dorchester have all been taken by councillors representing parts of West Dorset outside the town.

Alistair Chisholm Dorchester

No embarrassment from our councillors?

■ THE WDDC FULL council meeting scheduled to decide whether to give £2m public funds to developers Simons for the Charles Street development started with a proposition from Councillor Tim Harries to provide standing room for the numerous public who were left outside in corridors.

A vote was taken and 33 councillors, exclusively Conservative, out of 48 voted to effectively deny the public entry.

The same councillors then voted not to delay the decision, even though Councillor Robin Legg had just newly informed the council that the project had been deemed as unviable since 2009 with four further assessments recording increasing unviability.

This demonstration of unity, demanded by leader

Robert Gould to show 'confidence' is impressive, evidently powerful enough to even move a church from one car park to another.

Impressive too is the lack of embarrassment or acknowledgement of responsibility for the financially disastrous project which has already forced dozens of shops in Dorchester's centre out of business and leaves the taxpayer with the bill.

But while cutbacks in public services continue, its interesting that these 33 councillors will happily use most of our £2m to move a church. This comes in the wake of news that funds to pay for new council offices are also £2m short of calculations.

Andrew Leppard
Bridport

'The next elections can't come soon enough'

■ EVERY council-taxpaying household in West Dorset District - from Lyme Regis to Puddletown, from Sherborne to Chickerell - ought to know this: [1] Our council (WDDC) has just approved that an extra £2million spending on Dorchester's stalled Charles Street project will now come out of taxpayers' pockets instead of those of the developer, Simons.

Most of this money is to shift a private church off one central car-park onto another central car-park. This is without any public consultation. And this is without any guarantee that Phase 2 of the development will follow.

[2] Roger Gould (no relation to WDDC Leader Robert Gould), Director of Dorchester's biggest privately-owned store and a long-time supporter of the retail development scheme, now says: "It is inconceivable that this new scheme could be viable with a significant reduction in adjacent car parking spaces."

Town centre car-park spaces are set to be reduced from 506 to 340.

[3] Viability Assessment reports are produced regularly by Simons and handed to WDDC officers. Every one of the last six reports, which cover the past three years, has concluded that Phase 2 is not viable. And, even worse, that the prospect of viability has been steadily - and is still - deteriorating.

Dismissing all of the above, the ruling party used its majority - several of whom appeared to be grinning in victory (or, just possibly, in sheer embarrassment) - to shovel another £2million of our money into this supposedly private enterprise zone of Charles Street.

The vote was recorded and we are entitled to know which way every councillor voted. The next elections can't come soon enough.

Wildlife trust call for badger cull to be abandoned

DORSET Wildlife Trust is urging the Government to listen after MPs backed a motion to abandon the planned badger cull.

The trust continues to call on the Government to permanently scrap the cull and throw its weight behind better, lower risk, ways of tackling the disease.

Last Tuesday it was announced that pilot culling schemes in Gloucestershire and Somerset would be delayed until 2013, following a request from the farmers carrying out the cull.

The vote followed a five and a half hour Parliamentary debate, triggered after more than 163,000 people signed a petition opposing the cull.

Imogen Davenport, Director of Conservation at Dorset Wildlife Trust, said: "We are acutely aware of the hardship that bovine TB causes to farmers and we all want a solution to the problem. A cull is predicted to reduce bTB by only 16 per cent at best, and could make it worse."

Dorset is one of 12 Wildlife Trusts working on badger vaccination programmes as already being undertaken by Gloucestershire Wildlife Trust.

Paul Wilkinson, Head of Living Landscape for The Wildlife Trusts, said: "A badger vaccine is available now and improved biosecurity measures can help to reduce the spread of the disease. In the longer term a cattle vaccine can play a very real part in helping deal with the problem and the Government should now be putting the effort into ensuring this vaccine can be deployed as soon as possible."

Vase from a box of jumble raises £1,6000

A VASE found in a pile of donated charity bric-a-brac has raised £1,600 for Julia's House, the Dorset children's hospice.

The rare Bernard Leach stoneware vase attracted some fierce bidding among collectors when it was auctioned off by the charity, finally going to an anonymous buyer.

Julia's House relief retail manager Paul Cartledge, who discovered the vase, said: "We were really pleased. Not a bad when you think it cost us nothing and could easily have been accidentally broken or overlooked as it was just in a box of loose jumble."

Selling was brisk, with other items fetching more than expected, including a gold watch and a rocking horse that each went for £170. A rare book and a Carlton vase each made £100.

The total raised from the auction just over £5,000.

Open garden provides funds for two charities

□ LYNDIA PAIN and Audrey Saunders presenting a cheque for £425 to Caroline Nickinson Director of Fundraising for Weldmar Hospicecare Trust

A LOCAL women who opened her garden to visitors on two afternoons this year has raised £850 for two charities.

Lynda Pain opened her gardens in Lower Bockhampton to raise money for Weldmar Hospicecare and Pancreatic Cancer UK. Each charity has received £425 from this event.

Lynda's husband David spent seven weeks at Joseph Weld Hospice in Dorchester and she wished to raise funds for the two charities in his memory.

"The care that David received at the hospice was excellent and so was the invaluable support which

by Trevor Bevins

they gave us both. This is my way of saying thank you. I would also like to thank everyone who helped at the open gardens – I could not have done it without the support of my friends," said Lynda.

In addition fundraising for Pancreatic Cancer UK, Lynda has helped set up a local group for people who are in any way effected by pancreatic cancer. Known as Pan Pals, it is affiliated to Pancreatic Cancer UK.

This is the first group in the UK to be established and the national charity is treating them as pioneers in the hope that a network of such groups will develop across the country.

If you are affected by pancreatic cancer and would like to contact Pan Pals, please call Lynda on 01305 267185 or Audrey on 01258 837770.

What a whopper!

■ MIKE Corbin with his gigantic pumpkin. But is it a Dorchester record for this year?

DORCHESTER gardener Mike Corbin produced this monster pumpkin on his allotment in the town.

It took three people to lift it so he could get it home. Measuring well over five feet in circumference we think it could be the biggest specimen grown in Dorchester this year unless you know better!

And Mike, who lives in Coburg Road, has generously offered it to a good cause who might like to turn it into soup or bake slices of it.

He claims there is no real secret to growing the pumpkin, other than good seed to start with, plenty of natural nutrients and, of course, something we have had plenty of this year - rain.

If you are involved with a charity or community organisation and would like Mike's monster pumpkin please contact Dorchester reporter Trevor Bevins via email - trevorbevins@gmail.com or telephone him on 07763 535778 and we will put you in touch.

Pension rates dropping & Life cover premiums increasing due to an EU Directive!

FROM 21 December 2012 the EU Gender Directive comes in to effect. From this date insurers will no longer be able to use gender as a factor when calculating annuity rates for pensions therefore pension rates decrease for men and premiums for life insurance will increase for women.

If you are due to retire soon or were considering taking out insurance, it may be worth bringing forward your planning to benefit from higher rates and lower premiums. Currently annuities for men are cheaper than annuities for women because, according to statistics, women live longer. This is due to change by men's rates reducing and women's rates increasing. The average payout for a man will decrease by around 10% after 21 December.

Insurers have previously been able to argue that men and women present different risks and so their rates and premiums should be calculated differently, however the European Court of Justice has found this to be unlawful and so is bringing insurance in line with European laws that do not allow companies to discriminate by gender when offering services or goods. The result of this is that women's insurance premiums could go up by 15%.

Most private pensions allow you to draw the benefits from age 55 onwards so this means that you are perfectly entitled to claim your pension before reaching age 65 if it is in your interest to do so.

If you want to find out more and see what deal we can find for you, call today on 01305 770650 to book a no obligation appointment or visit our Weymouth office, but hurry as time is running out.

Savers continue to suffer under low interest rates

WITH continuing low interest rates, many people who rely on their savings and investments to top up their income have continued to be disappointed with returns. Deposit based savings such as bank and building society accounts and cash ISA's offer a guarantee that your capital amount does not decrease but at what risk? What will the buying power of that money be and is your money devaluing every day that it remains there?

The most important consideration when looking and savings or investments of any kind is diversification, not having all your eggs in one basket and not only avoid holding all your monies in one account but also ensuring that you have a range of assets within your portfolio to ensure exposure to different areas as well as an element of stability though assets with underlying guarantees which can be achieved in a number of ways. The banks are under increasing pressure to make profits, so now more than ever is the time to ensure that you get advice based on what's best for you.

Alison Theobald of Pennywise Independent Financial Advisers can explore all options from across the whole market and has huge numbers of products to choose from depending on attitude to risk right through from basic investment solutions to more advanced bespoke investment management packages.

Fed up with poor returns on your savings and investments or just require a review of your mortgage and protection, call today for your free consultation on 01305 268942.

Acclaimed pianist to perform at Dorset County Museum

PROCLAIMED by Jools Holland as one of the best pianists of all time, Ben Waters' performances are simply breath-taking – he's accompanied numerous legends of rock 'n' roll from the likes of Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, Shakin' Stevens and the Kinks' Ray Davies!

Last year, Ben was instrumental in re-forming The Rolling Stones to cut his star-studded tribute album to Ian Stewart (Boogie4Stu) which featured all the members of The Rolling Stones, Jools Holland and PJ Harvey. The proceeds from the album have already amassed a whopping £20,000 which has been donated to The British Heart Foundation, in memory of the late Ian Stewart who died of a sudden heart attack at a young age.

Ben has toured with the incredible ABC&D of Boogie Woogie which also features Axel Zwingenberger, Dave Green and Charlie Watts.

Ben Waters and Jools Holland

This November and December, Ben will be touring the UK on 227 dates, performing music from "Boogie4Stu" as well as an eclectic mix of seminal rock 'n' roll, boogie woogie, blues and rip-roaring originals in this rare solo tour.

Ben has also performed for HRH Prince Charles and at the actor and fellow musician, Hugh Laurie's 50th Birthday Party, plus countless corporate events across the globe.

Ben's forthcoming tour will provide audiences with a foot-stomping performance that will leave them wanting more.

The forthcoming concert at Dorset County Museum takes place at 8pm on Saturday, November 17th. Tickets cost £12 and are available now from the Museum Shop at Dorset County Museum on 01305 756827 or email shop@dorsetcountymuseum.org. Doors open at 7.30pm.

Local teenage jazz sensation to sing at Coach & Horses

TEENAGE jazz sensation Bronte Kirkby will be performing at the Coach & Horses in Winterbourne Abbas on Tuesday, November 6th.

Seventeen year old Bronte, a student at Thomas Hardy School, will be performing at the Inn as part of a special weekly pizza and music evening which will run until December.

Bronte, currently studying for A levels and hoping for a Vocal Performance Degree, grew up listening to Motown groups such as The Four Tops and The Supremes, as well as Fleetwood Mac and Eva Cassidy, before being drawn to jazz and blues stars such as Etta James, Sarah Vaughan and Billie Holiday.

You can often find Bronte busking in Dorchester and Weymouth, as well as supporting other acts, and she also performs with four big bands in the Dorset area.

The first pizza and easy listening music night at The Coach & Horses takes place on Tuesday, November 6th - for more details see the advert below.

Halloween Screening at Bridport Arts Centre

SET in 1976, Toby Jones plays Gilderoy, a documentary sound engineer who finds himself employed by the notorious Berberian Sound Studio – one of the cheapest, sleaziest post-production horror studios in Italy.

Obligated to work with the hot-headed producer Francesco, whose tempestuous relationships with certain members of his female cast threaten to boil over at any time, Gilderoy begins to record the sound for The Equestrian Vortex, a hammy tale of witchcraft and unholy murder typical of the 'giallo' genre of horror that's all the rage in Italy.

Only when he's testing microphones or poring over tape spooling around his machines does he feel at ease. Surrounded by Mediterranean machismo, and for the first time in his life beautiful women. Gilderoy - very much an Englishman abroad, devotes all his attention to his work.

He spends increasing amounts of time mixing screams and the bloodcurdling sounds of hacked vegetables, uneasy in his new environment and failing to notice how life is slowly beginning to imitate art.

Directed by Peter Strickland this film is an homage to the classic Italian Giallos of the period. The Venner Bar in The Bull Hotel will be offering special themed Curzon Cocktails for a special price of £5 on Thursday evening to anyone in receipt of a film ticket.

Berberian Sound Studio will be screened on Thursday, November 1st at 1.30pm and 7.30pm. Certificate 15. Tickets £6, Members and Concessions £5 from Bridport Arts Centre's box office 01308 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com.

The Coach and Horses, Winterbourne Abbas, Dorchester

Celebrate Christmas at the Newly Refurbished Coaching Inn, The Coach & Horses

IN THE heart of Winterbourne Abbas you'll find the Coach & Horses, a 3,000sqm village pub that has been transformed by new owners Sandy and Kelvin.

The pub now boasts a coffee lounge which exudes elegance and charm with reclaimed wood floors, open fires, easy chairs, and low tables all lit by chandeliers. Creating an atmosphere of calm and tranquillity with daily newspapers to enjoy or free wifi.

Then a bar area with high leather stools and posier tables, a choice of four real ales, accompanied by lagers and a range of new ciders to suit all ages. Fresh juices and smoothies to entice the young and old alike.

The 100 seater restaurant has a theatre kitchen, home to a traditional clay pizza oven and chargrill where you can watch the chef create your meal. The wood floors and chandeliers all add to the ambience, while in the winter months open fires will create an even cosier feel.

Local chef Chris Fleetwood has created a delicious Christmas menu, filled with local delights to help make your Christmas Party one to remember. Whether you are after the traditional Roast Turkey with all the trimmings, or a festive pizza, topped with Turkey, cranberry and stuffing, the Coach & Horses will provide a great venue for your party, without breaking the bank. The menu offers outstanding value for money at just £16.95 for two courses, or £19.95 for three.

The Coach & Horses is an experience to be enjoyed, with new life given to a pub closed since February. Bookings are being taken now for Christmas Parties from November 16th to December 24th.

The Millside Restaurant, Lyme Regis

THE Millside is located in one of the oldest parts of Lyme Regis, by the river Lym and the Town Mill. Recently rejuvenated the Town Mill has become one of the most vibrant areas of the town with art galleries, artisan foods, drinks and of course The Millside Restaurant.

We love all things local and home-made, because of this we make lots of our own bread, pasta and cakes (with local organic flour of course).

Just like the local suppliers we use, we enjoy the positive aspects of organic products that haven't travelled too far.

We want you to know exactly what's in your food and where it came from.

During December we are open everyday except Mondays and Sunday evenings. Over the Christmas holidays we will be open everyday except Boxing Day and have special menus available for Christmas Day Lunch and Dinner on New Years Eve, visit our website to view these menus: www.themillside.co.uk.

AsOne Theatre's Cabinet Maker's Daughter tour comes to dorset

ASONE Theatre will bring the tour of their show 'The Cabinet Maker's Daughter' to Dorset in November.

Set in 1846, the little town of Lyme Regis is battered by howling winter-gales. Dying and increasingly dependent on Laudanum, Mary Anning embarks on a strange dream journey through a life where she challenged the world of men and shook their beliefs to the core. She is haunted by hallucinations of old friends, enemies and even the dinosaurs she spent her life hacking out of the living rock. Into this world of dreams walks a man she never thought she would see again and attempts to find a resolution to their enigmatic relationship; a play about life and death; frustration and achievement; dreams and memories of long, long ago.

AsOne Theatre's 2012 tour is in association with the Jurassic Coast Earth Festival (a Cultural Olympiad partner).

AsOne's Artistic Director, Jane McKell said: "We have had amazing audience reaction. The words 'compelling', 'powerful', 'thought provoking'; and 'riveting' - have been the norm! It all started when, after reading Tracy Chevalier's great read 'Remarkable Creatures', I contacted her. To cut a long story short she offered us the rights for free to adapt her book for stage to tour - we were applying for funding. However an Australian film company bought the rights from her and curtailed our project. So undaunted we continued with our own play about Mary Anning touring in association with the Jurassic Coast Trust's 'Earth Festival' - itself a part of the Cultural Olympiad. It has been such a success we extended our tour into the autumn. Audiences love our play about this amazing, lowly born Lyme Regis woman - relatively unrecognised, and prevented as a woman from entering the Royal Geological Society - who was recently voted third amongst the top 10 international female scientists to affect the world as we know it. A remarkable Jurassic Coast story of early dinosaur discovery, achievement, sacrifice & love".

The tour visits The Corn Exchange, Dorchester (tel: 01305 267992) on Friday, November 2nd at 7.30 pm; Shaftesbury Arts Centre (tel: 01747 854 321) on Saturday, November 3rd at 7.30pm; and Bridport Arts Centre (tel: 01308 424204) on Friday, November 16th at 7.30pm.

Grandpa Banana at the Corn Exchange

DIRECT from California Grandpa Banana appears at Dorchester Corn Exchange, the Town Hall building on Saturday, November 10th. Banana was the founder member of the legendary San Francisco Bay area folk rock band The Youngbloods. The band's classic recording Get Together sold over one million copies cracking the U.S. top 5 achieving gold record status in 1969. Get Together was later featured on the soundtrack in the film Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas. The Youngbloods disbanded in 1973, and Banana started a solo career performing his own brand of Californian roots Americana. This gig is part of an extensive European solo tour to showcase Banana's album Even Grandpas Get The Blues. The album features guest appearances from world class musicians the likes of Ry Cooder, Barry "the Fish" Melton, and David Grisman.

Described as "One of the most notable of the unsung musicians" by The Marin Independent Journal, Grandpa Banana (real name Lowell Levinger) has been a major player in the legendary west coast psychedelic and bluegrass scene for over forty years. As well as performing in his own right Banana was accompanist to Mimi Farina (the sister of Joan Baez) for over twenty years, and also played keyboards for ten years with psychedelic band Zero, who's members included Steve Kimock who toured and recorded with members of the Grateful Dead. Banana also played with Norton Buffalo of the Steve Miller band, and also with Dan Hicks and his Hot Licks.

Grandpa Banana currently plays on a regular basis with Barry "The Fish" Melton founder member of Woodstock Festival legends Country Joe & The Fish in The Barry Melton Band and with The Michael Barclay Blues Band. He plays his beloved bluegrass music with friends and neighbours including The Papermill Creek Rounders, David, Tracy and Sam Grisman, The David Thom Band, Peter Rowan and the legendary Artie Rose and associates.

Banana was initially a bluegrass musician who apart from guitar and piano also plays banjo, mandolin, mandola and bass. He began his career on the east coast, in Boston playing bluegrass banjo in the local coffee houses of the early 60's being mentored by the likes of Bill Keith and The Charles River Valley Boys.

Support from Stompin' Dave Allen who has organised this event. Advance tickets £10 (on the door £12) are available from Dorchester TIC (01305) 267992 or buy online at www.stompinstore.com

WOW Youth Musical Theatre present Oliver!

WOW was formed in 1982, following a production of Oliver! by Weymouth Operatic Society. The show was produced for WOW's 10th Anniversary when 'Sold Out' signs were displayed at the Pavilion Theatre. It is fitting, therefore, that 'Oliver!' has been chosen for WOW's 30th Anniversary and will be performed at Weymouth Pavilion Theatre from Wednesday 14th - Saturday 17th November at 7.30pm with a matinee on Saturday at 2.30pm.

The story opens on the sinister interior of the workhouse where Mr Bumble is serving gruel to the boys. When Oliver Twist returns with his bowl and the words 'please sir, I want some more', Mr Bumble is outraged. Oliver is sold to Mr Sowerberry the undertaker but he is so unhappy that he runs away. I am sure you know the rest of the story - but do go and see WOW's interpretation. 'Food, Glorious Food', 'Where Is Love', 'Consider Yourself At Home', 'You've Got To Pick A Pocket Or Two' and 'As Long As He Needs Me' are among the many memorable songs in the show.

The two young boys playing Oliver will be Charlie

Vaughan and Ryan Hannigan with the role of Dodger shared between Oliver Tapley and Alex Rogan. Fagin's Billy Matthews and Bill Sykes Paris Misailidis.

Reine Anderson plays her first major role as Nancy with Charlotte Allen as Bet. Mr Bumble and Widow Corney, Adrian Bevan and Juliette Bone; Mr and Mrs Sowerberry, George Lyons and Cassandra Grindley. Completing the cast Noah Claypole, Rhys Hardwick; Charlotte, Clare Phelan and Mrs Bedwin, Fern Pritchard.

Director and choreographer is Martyn Knight, who has worked with the youngsters many times, and musical director and conductor to the live orchestra is Heather Reed.

Tickets are £13.50 with concessions for senior citizens and under 18's of £10.50, on Wednesday evening and Saturday matinee only. Available from the Weymouth Pavilion box office (01305 783225) or online at www.weymouthpavilion.purchase-tickets-online.co.uk

THE PERFECT PLACE TO START YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING AND A FUN DAY OUT FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

THE ever popular Annual Christmas Craft and Gourmet Foos Show at Kingston Maurward House took on a new dimension four years ago with the addition of the Gourmet Food Hall.

This proved to be a real crowd pleaser with customers able to taste and purchase the wonderful variety of locally produced gourmet foods. From olives to oils, cakes to coffees, ales to asparagus, sushi to shellfish, Spanish produce to sweets, preserves to pancakes, puddings to pies, tarts to tea and a host of food accessories including amazing knife sharpeners, graters, cheeseboards, vintage cake stands and domestic pots there really is something for everyone.

As usual there will be a wonderful selection of high quality crafts, ideal for that special individual Christmas present - from candles to cosmetics, pottery to pictures; bags to books; toys to trails; jumpers to jewellery and glassware to glitz - there really is something for everyone.

There is so much to see and do, come early and enjoy all day. Browse the wonderful stands in the morning, enjoy lunch from the large selection of foods available then how about a Dorset cream tea before more shopping...

The show takes over the whole ground floor of the beautiful Kingston Maurward House which is situated 2 miles east of Dorchester just off the A35.

Admission prices remain the same as last year. Adults £2.50; concessions £2.00 and children under 16 are free.

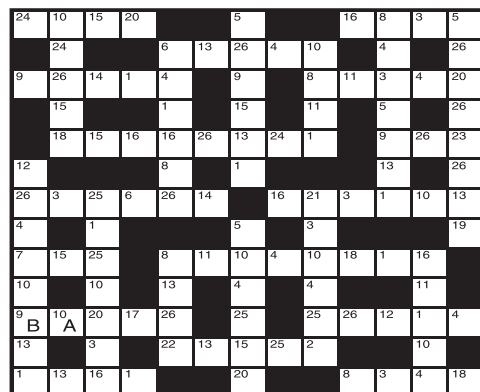

For more information please contact the organiser on 07519760215.

Lexus storms Las Vegas with custom specials

- Lexus's sixth year at the SEMA Show marked with six customised, concept and high performance models
- New Project LS 460 F Sport by Five Axis
- Supercharged GS 350 F Sport by VIP Auto Salon
- LF-CC coupe concept and IS FCCS-R race car
- LFA and LFA Nürburgring Edition

LEXUS has a high-impact presence at the 2012 SEMA Show in Las Vegas this week, its contribution to the world-famous customisation show led by a no-holds-barred interpretation of the new LS 460 F Sport by the Five Axis design studio. Also on show will be VIP Auto Salon's interpretation of a Supercharged GS 350 F Sport.

Joining these custom specials will be IS FCCS-R which conquered the Pikes Peak International Hill Climb earlier this year, and the LF-CC hybrid concept that broke cover at the Paris motor show in September. Rounding off the display will be the LFA supercar in both its standard form and its track-focused Nürburgring Edition form.

LS 460 F Sport by Five Axis

Concept design studio Five Axis has taken the new LS 460 F Sport (due in the UK at the end of the year) and added even more visual muscle and styling impact, with a full aero body kit, 22-inch custom wheels with Yokohama Advan Sport tyres, Air Runner TC-5 air suspension a dedicated matt silver paint finish and grey accents.

Supercharged GS 350 F Sport by VIP Auto Salon

The Lexus GS F Sport made its SEMA debut last year and returns in a hot new interpretation by VIP Auto Salon that raises performance with an Apexi CG SPL custom supercharger kit, high-performance Brembo brakes and Vossen CV7 20-inch wheels. The car's extra potential is broadcast in a WALD International Aero styling package.

Lexus IS F CCS-R

The IS FCCS-R appears at SEMA fresh from its debut at the Peaks Pike International Hill Climb in Colorado, where it secured a second-in-class result on its debut. Powered by a standard 416bhp 5.0-litre V8 engine, this competition special saloon features carbon fibre bodywork elements, 18-inch SSR wheels and racing brakes and exhaust system.

Lexus LF-CC Concept and LFA

The Lexus LF-CC Concept makes its USA debut at SEMA, having being unveiled at the Paris motor show in September. It represents both styling and hybrid powertrain technology that Lexus will be applying to new showroom models in the near future. Also on show in Las Vegas is the Lexus LFA supercar, presented in both its standard form, and with the Nürburgring Package which can be specified to tailor handling for track performance.

Their labour rate may cost you less,
but you could end up paying for it.

It's time to see through independent garages.

When it comes to servicing and repairing your Mercedes-Benz at an independent garage, can you be sure you're not paying more than you need to?

At Mercedes-Benz of Dorchester's Official Workshop, we'll tell you the price of any work that's needed and how long it'll take before we begin, so you'll know exactly where you stand.

Furthermore, all our Genuine Parts come with a comprehensive two-year guarantee and include the labour cost of fitting them, meaning that when you drive away, you'll feel reassured that if something goes wrong, we'll be on hand to help. That's why it pays to see the experts.

And at the moment, this is especially true. If you present the voucher below when bringing your car in to us, we'll give you £50 off the labour cost for any servicing or repair work we carry out.

To find out more, contact us today on 01305 264 494.

*Average based on customer service feedback from Service Events held at this Mercedes-Benz Official Workshop between 1 January 2010 and 31 December 2010.

Seasiders sail through to third round

DORSET FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

WITH WILL MOWBRAY

Dorset Premier League

Bridport Res 3 Poole Borough 3

DUE to the League Cup second round only one league game was played and it gave Bridport the chance to move into the top five when they shared six goals and the points with their visitors from Poole.

The Bees strikes coming from Gary Bulman in the 16th minute, Paul Fellows in the 65th minute and Chris Herbst in the 80th minute while netting for the Hornets were Sam Coakes on the half hour mark, Luke Pidgley in the 78th minute and a penalty conversion from Marc Jackson four minutes into injury time. Despite this point Poole remain in the bottom two.

Dorset Premier League Cup

Swange Town 0 Weymouth Res 3

WEYMOUTH deserved their win and, but for a combination of excellent goalkeeping from Taylor and some wayward finishing the margin of victory could have been greater.

Swanage were decidedly below par and will look to improve quickly or their season could descend into a League survival battle.

Weymouth on the other hand looked a hard side to beat and are putting together a decent run of form which bodes well for the remainder of the season.

Goal scorers: Sanchez-Baker (2), S.Zima.

Paul Blake - Paralympic memories (the conclusion)

Brilliant Blake reflects on experience

DOUBLE Paralympian Games London 2012 medallist Paul Blake concludes his exclusive interview with View Sports Stuart Broom on his thoughts and aspirations in taking part in a Paralympic Games in his own country; certainly one of the greatest moments he will experience in his life. The athlete from Charlton Down won a silver medal in the T36 400m final before adding a bronze just 48 hours later in the T36 800m.

In the second part of the interview, Paul reflects on the parade through central London and what he thinks and hopes the huge media coverage of the Paralympics has done for disabled athletes.

'Hopefully we have raised the profile of disabled athletics'

DESPITE finishing third in the 800m race, where he hoped of at least a silver and which didn't go to plan, Blake was philosophical and generous in his praise of his competitors.

"I thought I had a better chance in the 800m rather than the 400m, so having won the silver two days earlier at the shorter distance, I was hoping to at least equal it.

"I usually run a fairly fast first lap which gives me the momentum for the second 400m, but the race plan went out the window when the main competitors, the Russian pair Evgenii Shvetcov and former world record holder Artem Arefyev did not chase the Columbian Fabio Gutierrez Torres, who went off like a train.

"I was tucked in behind the Russians as we came to the bell by which time we had caught him as he faded, but the pace was really slow. In the back straight they moved out slightly and I moved up the inside and took the lead; the noise from the crowd was deafening when I struck the front.

Unfortunately I didn't have the finish in my legs to maintain it, and both of them came by me on the top bend, but I easily took the bronze.

"I wish I had, I thought Gold was a possibility before, but on the day the best man won I have to say, but I just hate to lose!

"The parade through the streets of London a few days later was another unbelievable experience. It was a long day. We had to gather at 10am and the procession started at 1.30pm which took around two hours, and then we had the closing speeches outside Buckingham Palace, and so it was around five before we finished.

"I was lucky to be on the first open top bus along with the likes of Jessica Ennis and Andy Turner, and other great names.

"The crowds were phenomenal, from Billingsgate where we started and all along the route; at Trafalgar Square it was manic! The people were fantastic.

"They weren't just calling out the big star names and congratulating them, we were all being cheered by name and asked questions. I just wasn't expecting the whole thing.

At the Victoria Memorial in front of Buckingham Palace we all deplaned and gathered on the steps. I was lucky enough to be fairly central and it's not often you get to stand so close to the Prime Minister and the Mayor of London.

"At a small reception for afterwards I got to speak with Boris Johnson who when I asked him about his zip-wire experience in the lead up to the games he laughed it off as a bit of a nuisance.

"The overall experience and the whole ethos of the event was much more than I expected; a really good experience that exceeded my expectations.

"Although we won't have the nation's support in Rio in 2016 as we have had here, the experience certainly has stood me in good stead and giving me an idea of what to expect, and I think from an athlete's perspective has helped me considerably.

■ WELL DONE: Paul Blake celebrates with his siblings after winning bronze Olympic medal

"This time everything was new to me, but being in London I had the advantage of the culture, language etc which helped greatly.

"I hope that the Paralympics has not just benefitted disabled athletes, but has been good for athletics in general and shown the world what we can achieve.

"I heard so many people say that they didn't see a disabled person, only an athlete, and I hope it has raised our profile and given us more recognition."

Sin-bin decision costs Weymouth

FROM 12 DORCHESTER 31
ALTHOUGH the home side chose to face the stiff breeze during the first period, it was they who made the better start.

Their pack really "got in Dorchester's faces", harassing them into error and taking the lead via a pushover try, touched down out wide. The home place kicker then added the extras with an exceptional kick into the elements to give his side a 7-0 lead.

Dorchester, still lacking in cohesion, did get a score back via a Baker penalty goal, only for a second home try, unconverted this time, to increase the lead. In fact it was only the defensive ability of Read, the Dorchester full back that prevented Frome taking an unassailable lead before the halfway stage.

As it was, the visitors edged their way back into the contest, again through a Baker place kick on the stroke of half time. It was of scant comfort to them at this stage, for Frome had shown themselves to be the better side thus far, and they would now have the wind at their backs.

Strong words must have been digested with the half-time lemons for it was a different Dorchester side that emerged in the second period.

The home set scrum came under increasing pressure, imposed primarily by Warren. Dorchester then began to win the breakdown, and consequently the territorial battle, and tries followed.

Carl Mitchell got the first, touching down in the right hand corner, before Luke Weller got the next down the left.

Although both were unconverted, they served to take Dorchester into a four point lead at 16-12.

Baker then kicked his third penalty of the afternoon to keep the scoreboard ticking and, when his pack drove their opponents back over their own line with Bonner coming up with the ball.

Dorchester now went chasing the bonus point, and thought they had it when Luke Weller got over. He was pulled back for a foot in touch however but, at the last, Read and Bament combined to put the later clear to touch down try number four.

Baker added the extras to this one to take his side to a bonus point win to which their second half performance had surely entitled them.

TROWBRIDGE 24 WEYMOUTH 22

THIS was an encounter that, although fortunes fluctuated throughout, was in the final analysis as close as the final score suggests.

The first ten minutes belonged to the home side and the Weymouth line came under considerable pressure. It coped however but just as it had cleared, an error came that enabled a Trowbridge prop to gallop down the touchline and crash over.

The try remained unconverted and Weymouth, now having settled, began to play some good rugby. They got a score back via the boot of out half Sheppard but, on the twenty five minute mark, they fell further behind.

Rolling front row substitutions proved to be their undoing. A replacement prop was slow to settle. Trowbridge won one against the head and increased their lead with a converted try. They continued in the ascendancy until the interval, scored another try, unconverted this time, and led 17-3 at the halfway stage.

While Trowbridge were good value for their interval lead, it was the visitors who had the better of the second period.

They narrowed the gap with a try by Joel Wilson who touched down after outstripping the home defence. Sheppard converted this one, and also the next, scored by Will Quick who cut a good angle to get over after a fluent move by his fellow backs had created the opening for him.

The scores were now tied at 17-17 and it was most certainly any one's game to win with 15 minutes left on the clock.

Disaster now struck for Weymouth for, during a bout of home pressure, skipper Quick was sent to the bin - a rather harsh decision some thought.

In any event Weymouth now had to play the final ten minutes with just 14 bodies on the park and it was Trowbridge who prospered by scoring a try that they converted.

The visitors were far from done however. They came back, imposed some pressure and Wilson got over in the corner for his second try of the game.

The conversion kick that would have tied the scores did not go over, but Weymouth were by no means done.

They went back at the last and created half an overlap but could not execute, and Trowbridge held on until the final whistle.

Weymouth will probably see this as the one that got away and, while accepting their losing bonus point, will feel that they could well have won.

PREVIEW

THERE'S another full weekend of league fixtures locally and both the local Southern league (South) clubs have home fixtures.

DORCHESTER should really have too much for OAKMEDIANS, for their opponents have had a pretty scruffy start to their campaign, winning just once.

Dorchester do need to settle their side however. If they can do so they can be a force in the division.

WEYMOUTH will certainly be targeting to win their home fixture against WOOTTON BASSETT. The visitors, while being a well-established side in the division, have not had a particularly good start to the season.

The form-book indicates a home win by a couple of scores. Games do not take place on the form-book however and I think this one will be close.

PUDDLETOWN undertake what might indeed be a decisive game in their entire league programme, for they entertain top side NEW MILTON 2nd who have carried all before them thus far, and scored a host of tries into the bargain.

Puddletown do seem to be growing into their campaign however and certainly have a chance in this one. If they are at their best they can make home advantage count. It will not be easy.

Dorchester seconds entertain their Weymouth counterparts for what, I guess will be a typical local derby with little separating the sides at the end of the day.

FIXTURES 3rd November

Cerne Valley U14 123-3 beat Weymouth 98-3 by 25 runs
CERNE, batting first, quickly mounted up runs against Weymouth with a fine display of attacking batting; Tom Doyle leading the charge with an impressive 29 not out which included some powerful drives.

He was ably supported by Frampton (18 no) and Webb (9) as the Weymouth bowlers fought back with some fine line and length, backed up by some sharp fielding as the game ebbed and flowed in a gripping contest.

Weymouth's innings got off to a flying start as PEmmery (26 no) and J.Sappworth (30no) punished any wayward deliveries with a succession of fine strokes.

At 60-0 after five overs the game looked evenly poised, but Solo Roper (2-11) and Tao White slowed the run rate with solid accurate bowling as Cerne fought back. Despite a well judged 16 from P.Sapworth, Weymouth fell 25 runs short.

Dorchester U14 58-2 beat Portland 56-5 by 4 wks
PORTLAND put up a brave effort against Dorchester despite being two players short.

Captain Luke Strong led the way with a mature 14 against an impressive bowling attack and aided by Luke Lovett (8 no) showed grit and determination as Portland never gave up and fought to the end. Dorchester's bowlers led by J James (2-3) always had the upper hand.

Dorchester then gave a lesson in sportsmanship by lending Portland two fielders as they set about their target.

Portland had the best possible start with Strong taking an excellent caught and bowled with the very first ball; however their joy was short lived as J.Elwood (27no) punished the Portland attack with some cultured stroke play.

Strong cleaned bowled R.Parkin (17) in his second over to finish with 2-13 and pick up the PRT man of the match, but the end was close and Dorchester cruised to victory with five overs remaining.

The next round of matches will feature Bridport U16 v Portland (10am) and Powerstock U16 v Dorchester (11.30am) at the Osprey Leisure Centre, Portland.

Angels bring Magpies to ground

Dorchester Town 1 Tonbridge Angels 2

BLUE SQUARE SOUTH - ATT: 463

TWO poor pieces of defending saw Dorchester Town lose at the Avenue Stadium for the first time this season.

Despite dominating the game, the result saw the Magpies slipped from fourth to eighth spot in the Blue Square South.

Two first half goals from Chris Piper, both following long throws, the second in added time, rocked the county town, and forced manager Phil Simpkin to introduce Ashley Nichols and Ben Watson, who he had been hoping to leave on the subs bench ahead of next week's FA Cup tie with Plymouth Argyle.

Jon Garcia made his first start on the left-wing, and new AFC Bournemouth loan signing Jordan Chiedoie, son of former Spurs star John Chiedoie, made his debut up front alongside Jamie Reid who was in his last game before returning to his parent club Exeter City.

Skipper Mark Jermyn, playing in a midfield role, almost gave the Magpies the lead inside a minute when he picked up a rebound 40 yards from goal and thumped a shot that just cleared the right hand angle of the goal frame.

Chiedoie had a great chance when he was left with a free header from Jake Gosling's corner, but he could only direct the ball straight at Angel's keeper Lee Worgan.

Jermyn was revelling in his midfield role, and was close with another shot, this time a 25-yard drive that flashed past Worgan's left upright.

Dorchester were totally in command and when Garcia's cross found Aaran Pugh at the far post it was shuffled behind by Worgan and a defender for a corner. Central defender Charlie Clough was next to try his luck but his 25-yard effort also just went wide of the post after he picked up another loose ball.

It looked a matter of time before Dorchester would score, but it was Tonbridge with their first chance on goal who took the lead on the half hour.

Ross Treleaven, something of a Rory Delap long throw specialist, caught the Magpies defence napping with a quick throw.

Clough could only glance the ball sideways as it arrowed in, and the unmarked Piper on the edge of the area, volleyed beyond Jason Matthews.

Reid who has been a disappointment in his final games at The Avenue, squandered a great opportunity of leaving on a high two minutes later.

Gosling's pass found Chiedoie just wide of goal who flicked the ball on to Reid on the edge of the six yard box. But the striker took too long pondering the chance, and Henry Muggeridge stepped in to clear.

Angel's Frannie Collin fired a free-kick over the top after Jake Smeeton had pulled him back, before the visitors doubled their advantage in added time.

Once again the home defence was caught out by Treleaven's long throw, allowing Angel's skipper Gary Elphick to head the ball on to George Purcell. Although Matthews managed to get his fingertips to the striker's header, Piper forced the ball home.

INSIDE: Dorchester & District Snooker league

Striker main priority despite defensive blunders

DESPITE criticism of his defence for the loss of the two goals that saw his side lose their 100 per cent home record this season, Dorchester Town manager Phil Simpkin is desperate to sign a proven goalscorer to bolster his attack.

Speaking after the Magpies had lost 2-1 to Tonbridge Angels at The Avenue Stadium on Saturday he said: "We've lost because of two very poor pieces of defending for which we are not known. I've never seen us concede goals like that!

"Defensive situations have been our strength this season without a shadow of a doubt, and today it wasn't."

In a game which Dorchester dominated, they conceded two first half goals; both following long throw-ins; in which Angels central midfielder Chris Piper had time to pick his spot.

Although Jon Garcia, starting his first game for the Magpies since signing six weeks ago, pulled a goal back within 20 seconds of the restart with a wonderful volley, Tonbridge held out despite being under almost constant pressure.

"I thought the first goal was totally against the run of play, and the second one was a comedy of errors!"

Nathan Walker was playing his first game back following a hamstring injury where he partnered Charlie Clough in the centre of defence, whilst Jake Smeeton was playing only his second game of the campaign following a leg injury that has kept him out since April, whilst Aaran Pugh filled in at right back to allow Mark Jermyn to move forward into midfield.

incredible goal

Simpkin added: "I thought we had got back in the game when Jon Garcia scored that incredible goal and were going to get something out of it.

by Stuart Broom
stuart@pemedi.co.uk

"We played really well in the second-half, and with the greatest respect to Tom Warrilow, who has been a great friend of mine for years, we've lost our home record to the worst side we have played here this season, which is a great shame."

Simpkin defended his decision to leave midfield schemer Ashley Nichols and striker Ben Watson on the substitute's bench and admitted that he was tempted to have left out more of his senior players.

However, with his side two down at the break he decided to introduce Nichols in place of Jake Gosling at the start of the second-half, and just after the hour Watson in place of Jordan Chiedoie, son of former Spurs player John Chiedoie, making his debut on loan from AFC Bournemouth.

"I deliberately left Ben and Ash out because I didn't want to risk them being injured which didn't help the situation.

"Jordan had his debut today and found it a little more difficult than he thought, but they (young players) do.

"Football is physically hard but he acquitted himself okay, but we did look different with them (Nichols and Watson) on the field in the second half, and we didn't get the rub of the green, whereas before to be fair on occasions we have.

"I thought Jordan worked hard but at the end of the day it's a big jump to go from youth football at Bournemouth into this standard, but he's got a good pedigree in his dad."

"I just didn't want to risk the senior players, and if I thought I could have got away with it I would have rested more, but we just don't have a big enough squad to do it."

not fractured

Unfortunately skipper Mark Jermyn was injured following a clash of heads in the first-half, and although it appears that he has only suffered heavy bruising and not fractured his cheekbone as first feared, at this moment it is doubtful whether he will be fit for next week's FA Cup clash with Plymouth Argyle at the Avenue Stadium.

"I'm obviously disappointed at losing, but it's not the end of the world, and apart from Jem we have come out of it without any injuries which is a big plus.

Looking forward to the game that will be televised live on ESPN next Sunday (November 4th) kick-off 4.30pm, Simpkin said: "I'm glad the club have done so well financially out of it.

"I went to watch Plymouth at Cheltenham on Tuesday and was quite impressed with them. I also thought the standard of the league was higher than I thought it would be, so we know we've got a game on our hands. However I am sure we will defend better than we did!"

Simpkin admitted however that looking beyond the match against the Pilgrims, he is not so much worried about his defence, it is the lack of goals.

"It's no secret of the fact that I'm looking to strengthen in forward areas. I have spoken to the chairman who is aware of the situation.

"I've always known that it's not been a particularly strong point of our game and I'm desperate to get someone in if not two as soon as possible.

"We will definitely be bringing one in this week but he is cup tied. The other one is from a Conference Premier club and also cup tied."
